1. A member is appointed as a Player Member from the date of acceptance of the application by the company. To apply for membership you must be 16 or over.

2. On approval of your application you will be sent an email and an SMS (text message) which confirms your membership number and syndicate numbers.

3. A member must comply with the Policies and Procedures (available on the Virtual World Direct website) and with the terms of the 'Member Agreement', as and when amended by the company. A member acknowledges that he/she has a copy of the said agreement or has seen and has access to the same.

4. A member agrees to pay £5.00 per week (per syndicate placement) for the e-Lottery membership subscription. A member understands that if the subscription payment is not received by the company on the due date they will be removed from their syndicate and will no longer be entitled to any winnings generated by said syndicate. They will be notified of this by email and/or SMS message (if we have their mobile phone details). All credit/debit card transactions, both successful and unsuccessful, are recorded by ourselves and by our Merchant bank. If a member is removed from a syndicate for Payment Failure or Cancellation and the said syndicate consequently wins, VWD are not liable to pay any winnings to said member. Subscription payments are ongoing until cancelled in accordance with clause 6.

5. UK syndicate winnings are equally divided among the 49 syndicate members. Each player will receive 1/49th of the total amount of winnings due. Euro syndicate winnings are divided among the 39 syndicate members. Each player will receive 1/39th of the total amount of winnings due. Virtual World Direct guarantees to pay all winnings due subject to these winnings being paid to Virtual World Direct by the Lottery operator. Should you request a winnings payout for less than ten pounds (£10.00 GBP) a two pound and fifty pence (£2.50) administration fee will apply.

6. A member may cancel this agreement at any time by giving 48 hours written notice to the company. Membership is deemed cancelled when the company has acknowledged the cancellation request.

7. The company may terminate this agreement by giving notice in writing if a member's conduct in any way compromises the company's reputation or contravenes the Polices and Procedures or the Member Syndicate agreement. A member has 30 days in which to appeal against the decision, with legal representation if required.

8. If any provision in the membership agreement is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable the company may amend or delete the provision. The amendment or deletion of any clause will not affect the remaining clauses and provisions.

9. The company never forfeits its rights to require a member's compliance with the membership agreement or with applicable laws and regulations governing business conduct. Only in rare circumstances will a policy be waived, which is only permitted when conveyed in writing by the company. Any such waiver will apply only in that specific case and may not be used as a precedent in any other case.

10. The company's failure to exercise any of the rights in this agreement or to insist on strict compliance with the Policies and Procedures does not constitute a waiver of the company's right to require compliance. Waiver of any part of this agreement or any provision of the rewards programme must be in writing and signed by an authorised officer of the company.
